

1 order to get the best results on the part of this mule
2 was to feed him well, curry him, be kind to him. The 3 farmer who made the purchase did all these things. After 4 several days, he decided to put the mule to work. He 5 hitched him up to a plow and, of course, those of you
6 who have been on the farm know he told him to get-up.
7 He said this to him several times but the mule stood pat.
8 In fact, that mule stood as pat as some of the delegates
9 I met at this fine Convention. After a few moments he 10 decided he made a bad purchase. He went to his neighbor
11 and said, give me my money back, take the mule back.
12 The neighbor said, no, he was a good mule, let's go see 13 what's wrong with him. He went over and he reached down 14 and grabbed a two by four piece of wood and he hit the 15 mule between his eyes, told the other farmer, now go over 16 there and say get-up. He went over, said get-up, the 17 mule moved off. He said this is a good mule but before 18 you can get him to do anything you got to get his attention.
19 Maybe I have your attention by this time.

20 First I shall read to you from a report which 21 you have on your desk. The minority strongly recommends
